BODY OF MAN FOUND

The body of Henrick Henrickson, 62, of Brisbane, was found Sunday partly submerged in a slough near Brisbane, sheriff's deputies reported here. The man had been seen intoxicated in the vicinity Saturday night. Death was believed caused by a paralytic stroke.

Rainfall often is 25 per cent greater in wooded land than in open spaces.

Talent Sought For Show

Six Redwood City and San Carlos children will be chosen by a group of judges during an elimination contest on the stage of the Fox Sequoia Theater Saturday afternoon, Sept. 27, to appear with radio's lovable "Uncle Benny" Walker, at a special show to be staged at Joe Territo's new San Carlos Market on opening day.

Hal Honore', manager of the Fox Sequoia Theater, who has played the role of "Uncle Hal" on the stages of many Fox West Coast Theaters, has consented to engineer the original "elimination" of entries from his theater stage, from which six finalists will be selected by a group of judges in the audience. These finalists will then be introduced from the stage of the Carlos Theater in San Carlos, also on this Saturday matinee, and will later be featured with Uncle Benny Walker at the opening of Territo's market.

Any children who can sing, dance, recite, or play musical instruments and who wish to compete with the others for honors in these events will first be required to fill in an official entry blank, which may be had by calling at Territo's Market, or at the box office of either the Sequoia or Carlos Theaters. These blanks must be filled out and delivered to the Sequoia or Carlos Theaters no later than 9 p.m. Friday, Sept. 26, for consideration.

Johnny Shaw, famous organist and accordionist, will accompany all musical and dancing numbers at the For Sequoia Theater during the Saturday matinee elimination. A reputable group of judges will select the six finalists and one of these will appear at a later date on radio station KGO.

Sale of baby haddock, a practice recently started, is a serious threat to the valuable North Atlantic haddock fishery, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service declares.

Cereal Has High Vitamin Content

"Most housewives know Vitamin B as the 'oomph' vitamin that puts the sparkle in your eye, spring in your step and zip in your soul." This statement was made recently by Henry A. Wallace, vice president of the United States, before a gathering of over 900 doctors, chemists and dieticians who were in Washington, D. C., to study present food problems.

Long recognized by the medical world, Vitamin B is considered a very necessary part of the human diet. This vitamin as it is found in whole wheat and coarse grains has its vast nutritive value greatly reduced in the various milling processes.

Realizing the need for a food comprising these necessary grains in their naturalness, the Dina-Mite Food Co. of California, some 20 years ago began marketing Dina-Mite breakfast cereal, throughout the West. A blend of wheat, bran and flax, Dina-Mite has for many years held the highest regard of the medical profession and dieticians throughout the West as being a wholesome breakfast cereal with an abundance of enriching Vitamin B so necessary to the human diet.

In addition to being an excellent cooked cereal, Dina-Mite is widely used for muffins, cookies, puddings and many other recipes calling for a flour base.

R. C. Woman Hurt In Woodside Crash

Mrs. Jennie Orta, 20, of 31 Linden St., Redwood City, is in Community Hospital where she is being treated for back injuries received when the car in which she was riding crashed into a tree and fence near Woodside yesterday afternoon.

The automobile was driven by Michael Kovacich, 102 Woodside Rd. No other cars were involved.

'Man Hunt' at Redwood Sunday

Refuge, though momentary, is found in the company of Joan Bennett by Walter Pidgeon in the new thriller, "Man Hunt," the story of the world's two greatest big-game hunters, stalking their fiercest prey—each other. The picture stars Pidgeon and Miss Bennett. George Sanders is importantly featured. Companion feature is the musical comedy, "Time Out For Rhythm," starring Rudy Vallee, Ann Miller and Rosemary Lane. Both features play Sunday and Monday at the Redwood Theater.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

MENLO PARK — Edward O'Keefe and James Houston of San Mateo secured the limit in doves during the weekend at Colusa. They report the hunting good in that locality.

The fence surrounding the Merrill property on the corner of Mac Bain Ave., and Oak Grove has been removed preparatory to erecting a substantial building.

The Town Council Tuesday transacted only routine business. The matter of laying underground wiring from Valparaiso to Robles Aves. for electroliers was discussed at length but no action was taken.

Many old friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Brady in San Francisco last Saturday. Mrs Brady was born and raised in Menlo Park and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Doyle and a brother of Father James Doyle, who was the celebrant of the mass. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Frank and Charles Brady. The former lives in Redwood City and is an executive for the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. of San Francisco.

The funeral of John A. Hanley took place from the Church of the Nativity following a requiem mass at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Mr. Hanley was a native of San Francsco, aged 48. He leaves a wife and four minor children. The deceased held a clergical position at Stanford University and only recently received a promotion. Mr. Hanley was well liked and had made many friends during his 15 years residence in Menlo Park.

There was a rumor current last week that the city council plans to increase the police force to the extent of two more members. They will be taken from the eligible list of the department.

The business of the local post office has advanced so much recently that another carrier may be appointed from the eligible list by the postmaster. There are several names on the civil service list.

Three parcels of property in the Flood subdivision were sold this week. The sales amounted to $30,000. Several new homes are being erected there by San Francisco attorneys.

It is reported that the state will shortly begin work on widening the highway through town. Many property owners have begun moving back their buildings. It is said the work will be completed within a year.

Classes Planned Here For Peninsula Bankers

Frederick R. Silvey, president of Peninsula Chapter, American Institute of Banking, disclosed here that 80 Peninsula bankers are expected to attend the American Institute of Banking School which opens Oct. 2.

Classes will be held in Sequoia High School.

To be taught are three classes:

1. Negotiable instruments, which begins Oct. 3 with Louis B. Dematteis, deputy district attorney for San Mateo County, as instructor.

2. Credit administration, beginning Oct. 7, with B. Watson Luke, vice president of American Trust Co. in San Francisco, as teacher.

3. Public speaking, beginning Oct. 2, with Ray Bishop, public speaking teacher of the bay area, as instructor.

Each course will be conducted in two-hour evening classes weekly for 21 weeks. They are open to the public, being organized under the Sequoia Adult Evening School.

The American Institute of Banking is the educational section of the American Bankers Association. It is the largest vocational institution of its kind in the world, having an annual enrollment of more than 65,000 students. The courses are designed primarily for bank employes to increase their knowledge of their work and aid in their advancement in the banking field.

Waiting List Seen For Toastmasters Club

So many applications have been received for membership in the Toastmasters Club that it is evident the organization will have a waiting list, it was announced at the club's regular meeting Monday.

Max L. Gelber, who acted as chairman of the meeting, introduced five speakers, including S. S. Mayo, principal of the evening high school, which sponsors the club.

E. Floyd Elson spoke on toastmasters' problems; Merlin C. Donaldson, YMCA secretary, talked on "My Occupation"; L. Moore described a recent hunting trip he made in Northern California, and Chester C. Armstrong took "Boy Scouts and the Community Chest" as his topic.

Mayo was called upon to make an impromptu talk on evening high school statistics. He will continue the topic at next week's meeting.

LIGHTING

This month and on into Spring is the homey season of the year. Vacations are over. Schools have started. The family is finding happiness and quiet contentment in the home circle from sundown to bedtime. Isn't this true of you and your family?

To you, then, we would like to suggest a simple, inexpensive way to add to the brightness and gaiety and happiness of your home. It's Family Style Lighting.

Light up your easy chairs for new reading pleasure or to smooth out mother's wrinkles as her eyes watch the mending needle. Do away with glare where Sis and Sonny are studying at desk or table. Transform the corner davenport with a new lamp to spread light for your family and to say "welcome" to friends.

You'll be surprised at how little it costs to provide good light for each member of the family.

GOOD FOOD

to keep children active

Running, romping children burn up energy so fast that their bodies require constant rebuilding. A substantial breakfast, a tasty, well prepared lunch and a hearty dinner consisting of meat and fresh vegetables is not enough. They also need between-meal snacks, plenty of fresh wholesome milk, fruit in season and even ice cream. Make sure your pantry is well supplied as a guard against malnutrition and subsequent poor health.

RULES OF CONTEST

This contest will run for 13 consecutive weeks. This page of nationally known products will appear each Thursday evening in the Redwood City Tribune. The cans, cartons, bottles, etc., of the products advertised on this page must be brought to the Newspaper Contest Editor at the office of the Redwood City Tribune so your votes may be tabulated and registered under your name. Each contest worker will receive a receipt for each turn-in and the turn-in days are Tuesday and Wednesday of each week.

Absolutely nothing but the labels or vote getters mentioned in each ad on this page will be accepted for votes. No labels, cans, bottle tops, etc., which are rusty, damaged or plainly not of recent purchase will be accepted. The decision of the Contest Editor in this regard will be final.

Anyone residing in the area of Menlo Park to San Carlos, inclusive, is eligible to enter the Contest except employes of the newspaper or members of their families. The contest will officially close and no turn-ins will be accepted for credit after 11 o'clock Saturday, November 22nd. Prizes totaling $125 will be awarded on Wednesday, November 26th. Awards will be made according to the final standing of the contestants and the decision of the judges will be final.

The United States has more than 225,000 miles of underground gasoline, natural gas and oil lines, according to estimates.

More than 80 per cent of the 100,000 annual cases of diphtheria in the United States occur between the ages of 1 and 5 years.

Fan Clubs Formed By Waters Admirers

The Ethel Waters appearances as the star of "Mamba's Daughters" at the Geary Theater, San Francisco, starting Monday, Oct. 6, brings up an exceptional bit of information. Within the past few years it has become a fairly common practice for admirers of a screen or radio performer to form a fan club.

The legitimate theater has been peculiarly free of such collective demonstrations of affection in the past, but the current season has seen a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm that may mark the first fan organization of its kind in the country, a group which might well be entitled the "We Think Ethel Waters Is Magnificent Club," or the "Associated Admirers of Herculean Hagar," or, perhaps, "The Society for the Extermination of Gilly Bluton."

Charter members of the group would be that forthright band of playgoers, as well as performers, who pooled personal finances to take a large display advertisement, shortly after "Mamba's Daughters" opened in New York. The advertisement read:

"The undersigned feel that Ethel Waters' superb performance in 'Mamba's Daughters' at the Empire is a profound emotional experience which any playgoer would be the poorer for missing. It seems such a magnificent example of great acting, simple, deeply felt, moving on a plane of complete reality that we are glad to pay for the privilege of saying so."

Alexander Woollcott soon joined the club, writing to Miss Waters: "Ethel Waters is an actress of such scope and stature as could use a 'Medea.' In the meantime we must be thankful to 'Mamba's Daughters' for the chance it gives us to see such a performance as no playgoer can ever forget."

The honorary president in this event would be "that wonderful woman," known to the general public as Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who, in company with Helen Hayes, went back stage, after a performance, to congratulate Miss Waters, and who subsequently declared in her column "My Day," that Ethel Waters gave her "an unforgettable evening"; achieved "an extraordinary artistic success."

Federal gasoline tax collections for the first six months of 1941 were $169,127,079, or 55½ per cent higher than during the first half of 1940.

Youth Changes Mind, Takes Preston Term

Two 19-year-old youths last week told Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt that they preferred prison terms to being returned to Preston Reformatory, from which they had escaped. One of them got his wish Monday afternoon when he was sentenced to San Quentin Prison on a burglary charge, but the other had a change of mind and will go back to the juvenile institution both had referred to as a "hell hole."

William Look was sentenced to San Quentin. LeRoy A. Frisch, his companion in the burglarizing of an East Palo Alto home, was given the choice of serving six months in the county jail or returning to Preston, and chose the reformatory.
